Site of Hipsley Mill Road Log House

Woodbine

Public

This small log structure faced east on the west side of Hipsley Mill Road, located in what is now the Patuxent State Park. The log house was once a two story high, three bay wide (central batten wood door flanked by single windows); one room per floor structure. Two second floor windows were vertically aligned to those of the first floor. Now only the stone foundation of the original structure remains.
